

DATA FOR PROGRESS

From January 26 to 30, 2022, Data for Progress conducted a survey of 1,292 likely voters nationally using web panel respondents. The sample was weighted to be representative of likely voters by age, gender, education, race, and voting history. The survey was conducted in English. The margin of error is ±3 percentage points.

N=1,292 unless otherwise specified. Some values may not add up to 100 due to rounding.

[1] A bipartisan group of legislators have recently proposed the American Innovation and Choice Online (AICO) Act. The AICO Act puts in place new rules and standards for large technology companies. Supporters of the bill say these rules are necessary to limit major technology corporations abusing their power by squeezing out small businesses' products on their platforms and limiting consumers' choices. Opponents of the bill say this comes out of political motivations to burden these companies and would fundamentally alter the internet, decreasing consumers' convenience on major technology platforms. Knowing what you know now, do you support or oppose the AICO Act?	Strongly support	15%	21%	11%	11%
